

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

We are delighted with your interest in Fairmont Private Schools and look forward to welcoming your family to our community. Consideration is given to students who will pursue academic study with dedication and responsibility as well as contribute to our campus community. Your application will be processed through the Admissions Office of the campus you select. Any questions related to the application may be directed to the specific campus Admissions Director who will be glad to assist you through the application process.

The suitability of any applicant for enrollment is at the sole discretion of Fairmont Schools, Inc. All such decisions are final. Applicants who are not accepted for enrollment may reapply for the following school year.

Please Note: Students who require English language support, and/or an I-20 visa to study in the United States, are asked to please submit our international student application in place of this document.
